Welcome Dr. Ellyn

Dr. Ellyn Theophilopoulos, MD, FAAP. Ellyn Theophilopoulos, MD, FAAP graduated as the Valedictorian of Sweet Briar College in Virginia prior to moving to Florida to begin her training at the University of Florida College of Medicine. After medical school, she remained in Gainesville for her residency in pediatrics eventually serving as the Chief Resident and then as a Clinical Assistant Professor for the University of Florida Department of Pediatrics.

In 1999, she relocated to the Tampa Bay area when she took a position as an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics for the University of South Florida College of Medicine. During her time there she was named Faculty Teacher of the Year for four straight years.

She has been a part of numerous pediatric research projects and publications and remains active in the teaching of pediatric residents, most notably giving an annual lecture on the essentials of breastfeeding.

Dr. Ellyn is Board Certified by the American Board of Pediatrics and is the proud mother of five children. When she is not working or volunteering at the Clearwater Free Clinic, she enjoys spending time with her family, running, reading, and cooking.
